LOCATIONS:
• Denmark, Iceland, Poland, Russia, Sweden, Netherlands

ELIGIBILITY
• Follow your College’s requirements
• Meet Program/University requirements

PROGRAM TERMS
• Semester or Academic Year
• Fall term may earn fewer credits

CORNELL APPROVAL DEADLINE
• October 1 for Spring
• March 1 for Fall & Academic Yr
• Some programs have early deadlines
  Check for your program!

PROGRAM COSTS
• Varies by program, see website for more information
• Estimated budgets include bursared and out-of-pocket costs
• Financial aid available for Semester/Year programs

ADVISING
• See website for walk-in hours
• Individual Advising by appointment

PROGRAM ADVISOR
• Stephen Capobianco
• Alayne Prine (Denmark, Iceland, Sweden)

CORNELL RESOURCES
• cies.einaudi.cornell.edu

WWW.CUABROAD.CORNELL.EDU

While the traditional locations for study abroad in Europe have their merits, there are some wonderful programs that fall off of the beaten path. Here you will find a list of some unique programs where you can immerse yourself into local culture and experience a not so common study abroad journey.

Explore vibrant European cities brimming with history, art, music, and culinary delights. Learn and practice unique European languages to get the most out of your time. Save money in locations with less tourists. Immerse yourself into a colorful and exciting academic experience. The less than ordinary study abroad will broaden your horizons and perspectives.
Denmark
Copenhagen
• DIS: multiple programs
• U of Copenhagen

Iceland
Reykjavik
• Miami: U of Iceland

Netherlands
Amsterdam
• CIEE: Business & Culture
• IES: Pre-Law Certificate/Law & Criminology
• IES: Study Amsterdam
• SIT: Intern'l Perspectives on Sexuality & Gender

Maastricht
• University of Maastricht

Poland
Krakow
• API: Jagiellonian U of K: Humanities & Social Science

Warsaw
• CIEE: Central European Studies Program

Russia
Moscow
• Middlebury
• Math in Moscow

St. Petersburg
• CIEE: Russian Area Studies
• Bard-Smolny

Sweden
Stockholm
• Swedish Program

Uppsala
• CIEE: Arts and Sciences

Note: Not every program is approved by every college. Check on-line!