The history and culture of England has had a great impact on the world in the form of architecture, literature, folklore, the performing arts, cuisine and more. Today England’s economy is one of the largest in the world, with the global City of London at the epicenter of it all.

Cornell University students can immerse themselves in advanced studies throughout England, including Oxford, Cambridge, Manchester, Bristol, Coventry and York, and, of course, London.

We encourage you to peruse the back of this flyer for a comprehensive listing of Cornell approved programs and international opportunities in England. Cheers!
University or Study Program

Bath • Advanced Studies in England (ASE)
Birmingham • University of Birmingham
Bristol • University of Bristol
Cambridge • University of Cambridge (see + flyer)
Coventry • University of Warwick
Durham • University of Durham
London
- Arcadia: London Internship
- BU: London Internship Program
- City University
- Courtauld Institute of Art
- Fordham: London Dramatic Academy
- Goldsmiths, University of London
- Hansard Scholars
- IES: Study London
- IES: Health Practice & Policy
- Imperial College London
- King’s College London (KCL)
- King’s Health & Society Prog (KCL-Pre Med)
- London School of Economics & Pol. Sci. (LSE)
- Queen Mary College, University of London
- Royal Veterinary College
- School of Oriental & African Studies (SOAS)
- Sotheby’s Institute of Art
- University College London (UCL)
- University of the Arts London
Manchester • University of Manchester
East Anglia • University of East Anglia
Nottingham • University of Nottingham
Oxford • University of Oxford
Sussex • University of Sussex
York • University of York

Note: Not every program is approved by every college. Check on-line!

Key to Symbols

Direct Enrollment in University
Humanities & Social Sciences
Econ & Business
Politics, Policy & Law
Psychology
Environment & Sustainability
Health & Pre-Med
STEM
Media & Communications
Studio (performing and visual arts & design)
Internships
Service-Learning