Italy
Cornell Study Abroad Options

LOCATIONS:
• Bologna, Florence, Padova, Milan,
  Rome, Siena, and others

ELIGIBILITY
• Follow your College’s requirements
• Meet Program/University requirements

PROGRAM TERMS
• Semester or Academic Year
• Fall term may earn fewer credits

CORNELL APPROVAL DEADLINE
• October 1 for Spring
• March 1 for Fall & Academic Yr
• Some programs have early deadlines; check for your program!

PROGRAM COSTS
• Varies by program, see website
  for more information
• Estimated budgets include bursared and out-of-pocket costs
• Financial aid available for
  Semester/Year programs

ADVISING
• See website for walk-in hours
• Individual advising
  by appointment

PROGRAM ADVISOR
• Stephen Capobianco

CORNELL RESOURCES
• cies.einaudi.cornell.edu

WWW.CUABROAD.CORNELL.EDU

No matter your focus, study abroad in Italy can offer a varied and enriching academic experience. Italy is a country overflowing with natural beauty, deep history, and world-famous cuisine.

In Italy, you can study much of the origins of western civilization, or modern international business and fashion. Whether you are a beginner or fluent in Italian, you will be embraced into a world-renowned culture of celebrating the passions of life.

University or Study Program

Bologna
• Cornell in Bologna: BCSP Consortium

Ferrara
• CIEE: Language and Culture
• Middlebury School in Italy

Florence
• NYU: Florence
• CET: Florence

Milan
• IES: Business Studies

Padua
• BU: Language & Liberal Arts

Rome
• Cornell in Rome: AAP Signature Program
• API: John Cabot University
• Arcadia: STEM Study, Engineering
• Middlebury School in Italy
• IES
• ICCS
• IES: Language & Area Studies
• Temple

Siena
• CET: History of Art & Italian Studies

Turin
• Cornell-Summer: Cornell in Turin

Venice
• BU: Venice, Studio Arts

Note: Not every program is approved by every college. Check on-line!

Courses taught in Host Language
Direct Enrollment in University
Humanities & Social Sciences
Econ & Business
Politics, Policy & Law
Psychology
Environment & Sustainability

Health & Pre-Med
STEM
Media & Communications
Studio (performing and visual arts & design)
Internships
Service-Learning