While the traditional locations for study abroad in Europe have their merits, there are some wonderful programs that fall off of the beaten path. Here you will find a list of some unique programs where you can immerse yourself into local culture and experience a not so common study abroad journey.

Explore vibrant European cities brimming with history, art, music, and culinary delights. Learn and practice unique European languages to get the most out of your time. Save money in locations with less tourists. Immerse yourself into a colorful and exciting academic experience. The less than ordinary study abroad will broaden your horizons and perspectives.

Central & Southern Europe

Cornell Study Abroad Options

CROATIA
Dubrovnik
- API: D. Intern'l U, Diplomacy & Intern'l Business

CZECH REPUBLIC
Prague
- CERGE-EI (UPCES/IEF): Charles University
- CEA
- CET: Photography
- CET: Film Production
- CET: Prague
- SIT: Arts & Social Change

GREECE
Athens
- American College of Greece
- Arcadia: Hellenic, Mediterranean & Balkan Studies
- College Year in Athens
Thessaloniki
- American Farm School: Greece

HUNGARY
Budapest
- Budapest Semesters in Mathematics (BSM)
- Bard-CEU: Budapest
- Aquincum Institute of Technology

TURKEY
Istanbul
- CIEE: Koc University
- Duke in Istanbul: Bogazici U
- Syracuse: Bahcesehir U

Note: Not every program is approved by every college. Check on-line!